

INTERNATIONAL FOOD & AGRIBUSINESS

How do we make sure that in future there is enough and healthy food for everyone in the world? The solution to this challenging question lies in the hands of international entrepreneurs. Do you want to make the difference in the agri-food chain with a global mindset? Do you also realize how important the role of circularly economy is? That is exactly what the degree programme International Food & Agribusiness is all about. Are you interested in other cultures? Would you like to learn how to run a business or how to help companies to run their business more sustainably? Are you highly motivated, communicative, creative and professional? Then this English study programme is perfect for you!

CAN YOU BE GLOBALLY SUCCESSFUL WITH SWEET POTATOES FROM GHANA?

THE PEOPLE POTATOE PROFIT CHALLENGE OF WIEP AND MIKE

The first container ever of Ghanaian sweet potatoes for Europe may well arrive in June. This is partially an achievement of Wiep (21) and Mike (27). The 2 students of International Food & Agribusiness went to Africa on behalf of a German entrepreneur, to assess the opportunities for the sweet potato.
